SBN 2014: CALL FOR SYMPOSIUM PROPOSALS

The joint Society for Behavioral Neuroendocrinology/International Congress of Neuroendocrinology congress will be held from Sunday, August 17 - Wednesday, August 20, 2014 in Sydney, Australia. The Program Committee is now soliciting proposals for symposia. Symposia may include three or four speakers and are organized around the following themes:

- Theme: Metabolism, Obesity, Nutrition
- Theme: Reproduction/Sex Hormones
- Theme: Stress
- Theme: Peptides and Peptidergic Neurons

Successful proposals will be expected to contain good diversity in one or more of the following ways: junior/senior speakers; animal taxa; ethnicity; gender; and methodological approaches. Although we welcome proposals that include non-member speakers (not a member for the last two years), the number of non-member speakers must be limited due to budget limitations. Proposals should be submitted to Lique Coolen via e-mail at lcoolen@umc.edu NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, AUGUST 30. Please provide a brief description and verify ahead of time that the speakers are willing to participate should the proposal be accepted.

Behavioral Neuroendocrinology

Nominations are now being accepted for the 24th Annual Frank A. Beach Award in Behavioral Neuroendocrinology. The award will be made to a new investigator, normally within eight years post-PhD (or MD) who shows exceptional promise for making significant contributions to the field of Behavioral Neuroendocrinology. Investigators conducting original, independent research in any area of Behavioral Neuroendocrinology may be nominated. The nominator(s) should submit ONE letter of nomination. This letter can be jointly signed by any number of individuals of any rank, but the Committee will consider only one letter. A current copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae should be included with the nomination. Re-nomination of individuals nominated previously, who still meet the nomination criteria, but were not chosen, is encouraged.

The Awardee will be recognized and receive the award and an honorarium at the Behavioral Neuroendocrinology Social at the Society for Neuroscience (in San Diego on November 11, 2013). The Awardee will also give a short presentation at the Annual Meeting of the Society for Behavioral Neuroendocrinology in Sydney, Australia (August 17 - 20, 2014).

This year's Beach awardee will be selected by the SBN Awards Committee. The deadline for nominations is September 15, 2013. Nominations for this year's award or questions about the nomination procedures should be sent to: Dr. Jeffrey French, University of Nebraska at Omaha, 6001 Dodge Street, Omaha NE 68182. Submission of nomination materials as PDF files via email is encouraged: jfrench@unomaha.edu. Please use the email heading "Beach Award Nomination <Candidate last.name>"
