Announcements

Membership Renewal Reminder

A reminder to all members that it is time for many of you to renew your memberships in the SBN for 2008. This is a time of great change for our Society. We are developing an expanded role for our website with new ways to reach to out to our members. We now have active membership and participation in The Federation of Behavioral, Psychological and Cognitive Sciences (FBPCS) and the American Institute for Biological Science (AIBS). Finally, we continue to sponsor our Annual Scientific Meeting. The health and strength of our society depends on you, its members. This is an excellent time to be a member of the SBN and we encourage you to renew your membership today.

Reminder of the Change of Dates for 2008 SBN meeting in Groningen.

Due to conflicts with other meetings, the Groningen meeting has been rescheduled to occur from July 7-10, 2008. Please mark your calendars accordingly and plan to attend what promises to be an excellent meeting in a wonderful setting.

Holiday Greeting

The Executive committee would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a wonderful and safe upcoming holiday season. Further, we wish you an excellent personal and scientifically productive 2008!

New Job Postings (1)

1) Post-Doctoral Fellowship in "Gender, Race, and Science" Department of Gender Studies Indiana University-Bloomington

The Department of Gender Studies announces a 2-year post-doctoral fellowship in "Gender, Race, and Science" to begin August 2008. Specialization in natural, social sciences or humanities, but with a clear commitment to interdisciplinary work. Focus could include the environment, technology, medicine, sexuality, transnational contexts, and/or the theory and practice of science. We welcome empirical, textual, and theoretical projects from a variety of fields and periods.

Applicants should be no more than five years past the PhD, and should have the PhD in hand by May 2008. Teaching experience preferred. Postdoctoral fellows will be included in a faculty/graduate seminar on this theme, are expected to be in residence at the Gender Studies Department for the academic year, and participate fully in the intellectual life of the department. Fellows will carry the following annual teaching load: three courses (a graduate seminar, an upper-level undergraduate class, and an honors seminar or freshman topics course).

The fellowship includes a stipend of $40,000, health insurance, office space, and clerical support.

Indiana University is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer.

Review of applications to begin November 30, 2007. Send letter of application, curriculum vita, 5-page project proposal, writing sample (25 pages), 1-page course proposal for a course on "Gender, Race, and Science" (undergraduate), and 3 letters of recommendation to:
