NEW INVESTIGATOR SYMPOSIUM

Senior graduate students and post docs who are members of SBN in good standing (check to see if your membership dues are current here) and have a substantial story to tell about their research program may apply to present their work in The New Investigator's Symposium at the 2018 ICN/SBN meeting. New Investigator applications require an abstract, CV, a description of your research program, and 3 letters of recommendation. Please submit your application (250 word abstract, CV, and description of research) to kriegsfeld@berkeley.edu and direct letter writers to send their letters of support to the same email address. February 15, 2018. All materials must be received by this date including letters of support to be considered for this award.

All applicants should also submit their abstracts through the ICN conference website.
