NOMINATIONS SOLICITED FOR SBN AWARDS

DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 1, 2016

The SBN Awards Committee encourages the membership to nominate candidates for the Society's three major annual awards. Nominations can be submitted at any time, and deadlines for all awards will be September 1, 2016. The awards are:

Daniel S. Lehrman Lifetime Achievement Award: intended for long-term members of SBN and major contributors to scholarship and mentorship in the field.

Frank A. Beach Young Investigator Award: intended for members normally eight years post-PhD/MD/DVM with exceptional promise for significant contributions to the field.

W. C. Young Recent Graduate Award: intended for members within one year of receipt of the terminal degree, and based primarily on the dissertation.

Further information on each of the awards can be found by following the links below. Online nominations are encouraged.
