Beach Award Nominations Sought:
Deadline, September 30, 2013

Nominations are now being accepted for the 24th Annual Frank A. Beach Award in Behavioral Neuroendocrinology. The award will be made to a new investigator, normally within eight years post-PhD (or MD) who shows exceptional promise for making significant contributions to the field of Behavioral Neuroendocrinology. Investigators conducting original, independent research in any area of Behavioral Neuroendocrinology may be nominated. The nominator(s) should submit ONE letter of nomination. This letter can be jointly signed by any number of individuals of any rank, but the Committee will consider only one letter. A current copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae should be included with the nomination. Re-nomination of individuals nominated previously, who still meet the nomination criteria, but were not chosen, is encouraged.

The deadline for submission of nominations has been extended to September 30, 2013. For additional details, please see: <http://www.sbn.org/awards/index.php#beach> or contact Awards Committee Chair, Jeff French.

The Pre-SFN Meeting of the Society for Social Neuroscience (S4SN) will be held at the Hilton San Diego Bayfront Hotel, in San Diego, CA on Friday, November 8, 2013 preceding the annual SFN meeting. The themes of the symposia this year are empathy, social buffering and social loss, and the role of the opiate system in regulating social relationships. Each symposium will include studies in both human and animal models. The meeting will conclude with a poster session and a great opportunity to network with others interested in social neuroscience. Speakers include Brian Knutson, Jean Decety, Larry Young, Brandon Aragona, Greg Norman, Morten Kringelbach, and others! If you are interested in the neurobiology of social behavior, consider joining the society and participating in this meeting! For more information go to: www.s4sn.org.
